JRU MEMORANDUM NO. 2023-05

TO : All Officers, Faculty, Non-Teaching Personnel and Students
SUBJECT : Classes and Work Arrangement on March 6 to 11, 2023

1. In anticipation of the week-long transportation strike, classes in all academic divisions, from Basic Education to Higher Education, including Graduate School and Law School, shall be conducted in full online mode from March 6 to 11, 2023.

2. For non-teaching personnel, work from home arrangement shall be implemented during this period. However, a skeletal force shall be maintained for offices providing student services. Transportation will be provided for those who may have difficulty going to work. Please coordinate with Administrative and Human Resource Office on this matter.

3. Please note the University reserves the right to make adjustments to this announcement, depending on how the transport strike progresses. In such a situation, we will ensure we give students, faculty and staff advance announcements to give them ample time to make any needed adjustments.

4. For your guidance.
