

BACHELOR OF ARTS (AB) IN PSYCHOLOGY BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (BS) IN PSYCHOLOGY

The Liberal Arts program is meant to prepare its students for full and balanced lives as individuals and responsible citizens by instilling the analytical approach by which the truth is arrived at; acquainting the student with the broad major areas of intellectual knowledge, namely, the natural sciences, the social sciences, and humanities; fostering a desirable intellectual facility through the development of clarity of thought and expression, compassionate insight into human needs and aspirations, moral and esthetic awareness, and receptiveness to divergent ideas and proposals; facilitating awareness and enjoyment of the intellectual quality of life; for itself and not merely as a means for other intentions.

PROGRAM EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEO)

Three to five years after completing the Bachelor of Arts (AB) in Psychology or Bachelor of Science (BS) in Psychology, the graduates will:

1. Excel in their profession/career utilizing the knowledge acquired in the AB/BS Psychology program;
2. Become effective collaborators and innovators in the field of Psychology, applying professional/technical skills and competencies to make a positive impact on society; and
3. Be engaged in life-long learning and professional development through self-study, continuing education, or graduate and professional studies.

STUDENT OUTCOMES (SO)

After the completion of the program, the graduates of Bachelor of Arts (AB) in Psychology or Bachelor of Science (BS) in Psychology program shall be able to:

- a. demonstrate the capability to discuss and analyze the major classical and contemporary theories and concepts in psychology;
- b. demonstrate and apply the methods of psychological inquiry in building knowledge on local culture and context;
- c. demonstrate and apply theories and methods in psychology both in a personal and professional context;
- d. demonstrate capability for reflection and independent learning in graduate school level or a professional context; and

e. demonstrate appropriate relations with persons related to the field of psychology, whether colleagues, clients, and individuals belonging to various cultural contexts.